FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

“We are Lutherans! We Worship! That’s what we do!”

That is one of my favorite quotes from a Trinity member this year! It is an affirmation of who we are as Lutheran Christians – we are a Community who gathers to Worship God and expresses joy about it! How I pray that all members of Trinity could feel this way and convey this to their children and grandchildren. We are Lutherans – we worship – that’s what we do!

Some have described the church as a community that Gathers – then Scatters (in a good way!) That is, we gather to Confess our Sin, Receive Absolution, Praise God, Hear God’s Word – Read and Proclaimed, then we are Fed by God’s Hand and Sent Out with the Good News in Jesus Christ. It is also a description of our Order of Liturgy - just look at the headings in our bulletin or in the service order in the hymnal.

Another way some have described it: We are Called, Gathered, Washed and Fed, then Given our Assignment: Go in Peace, Serve the Lord!

However we describe it, WORSHIP is central to what we do – and who we are. It pains me to know that there are some who dislike worship, think it is boring, or don’t “get anything” out of it. Perhaps that is because they are expecting something that isn’t part of the deal. Worship isn’t meant to be our entertainment, and it isn’t meant to refill our tanks when we are feeling low...it isn’t about US at all – it is all about God! Don't get me wrong – I am glad when people feel convicted, forgiven, changed, fed from attending worship – but the purpose of worship is to WORSHIP GOD.

God's People from of old gathered to hear what God had to say – and in gathering, made it clear that God was their reason for gathering. When the Ten Commandments begins with "You shall have no other gods before me" – it really sets the stage. No Other gods Allowed Here! That even means the god of our own likes and dislikes. We gather because God said to do so – Honor the Sabbath.

When Marva Dawn (a writer and musician of the church) is greeted after worship by the words, "I didn't like that hymn" – she responds, "That's okay – we weren't singing it for YOU anyway!" That sounds a bit harsh, I know, but it is SO TRUE! Hymns are our corporate gift TO GOD – they are not sung for us. If you have that idea – you have worship all wrong! That's why our hymns have everything to do with the topic of the Day – that is determined by our Lectionary – God's Word for us that day. And we aren't the only ones – all the churches who follow the Common Lectionary are also on that lesson and topic that day. We are not the only ones at worship at that moment in time – we join hundreds, maybe millions of people all over the world on God's Day (the Sabbath) to listen to God's Word for us.

God's Word forms us into a Community, it ought to be heard and responded to in community, as well. We are one Body in Christ – and the weekly gathering is instrumental in shaping us, our attitudes and priorities... God's Word feeds us and gives us our work to do. All of worship is a Conversation with God.

God Calls us... we Gather...

God claims and forgives us...we praise God in response...

God speaks to us...in Christ Jesus...
we listen, then respond...
(Song, Creed, Prayers, Gifts)

God feeds us... we sing or pray a response....

God sends us out – We serve!

We are Lutherans! We Worship! It's what we do!

VIEW FROM THE LOFT

God, Inspiration, and Art

Most creators, whether they are composers, artists, authors, or even scientists, who have experienced that highly sought after “eureka” moment cannot explain where their ideas/ inspiration come from. I am often asked “how do you write a song” by my piano students. I really can’t answer that question easily because most of the time it doesn’t really “feel” like I wrote the songs I write. Any creator who is being honest will express the same feeling. It’s this feeling that makes me confident that inspiration is in fact a gift from God.

Anyone who knows my hobbies knows I am a lover of Stephen King’s work. King explores the concept of inspiration in writing in several of his books. All of King’s books tie together in his magnum opus, “The Dark Tower” in which King himself appears. In the book, King meets his own characters and they view him somewhat as a god believing he is their creator. In this, King corrects them saying, “I guess I wrote about you, but I don’t think I’m your creator not really...I feel more like I’m the conduit. If anything my talent is my openness to letting the words flow out of me, but it never really feels like the ideas are mine.” Later in the book the protagonist, Roland of Gilead, states, “Stephen King’s not the water, Susannah—he’s only the pipe the water runs through.”

not the water,
Susannah—he’s only the pipe the water runs through.”*

*Stephen King
The Dark Tower*

Pablo Picasso described it this way, “The artist is a receptacle for emotions that come from all over the place: from the sky, from the earth, from a scrap of paper, from a passing shape, from a spider’s web.” Vincent Van Gogh wrote, “The emotions are sometimes so strong that I work without knowing it. The strokes come like speech.” Ludwig van Beethoven, perhaps the “greatest composer of all time, wrote, ““The vibrations on the air are the breath of God speaking to man's soul. Music is the language of God. We musicians are as close to God as man can be. We hear his voice, we read his lips, we give birth to the children of God, who sing his praise. That's what musicians are.”

Regardless of the form, creators all feel the power of inspiration. One must hone his/her skills and techniques to be able to speak his/her language of choice (whether it be writing words, composing notes, painting pictures, etc), but ultimately the creation comes from a seemingly mystical place. Even creators who are not Christians attribute inspiration to something “other.”

Throughout the book of Psalms, David often writes of God answering his prayers, and leading him in the right pathways. David clearly felt God's guiding hand and was able to “channel” it. In the Old Testament, God gives Moses the words he needs. In the book of Luke, Jesus tells us if we have faith, “...the Holy Spirit will teach you what you ought to say,” (Luke 12:12). It is from personal experience that I say learning to be an “instrument” for God's voice is so important. That is why creative arts of all kinds are so essential in the education of our children, and I believe we adults must remember their value even as the weight of life builds upon us. Who has not at some time or another looked at a picture they drew and thought, “Really? I drew that? It's pretty good.” I know for my part there are many times I listen to a past song and think, “I wrote that...it doesn't really feel like I did, but I know I must have.”

In many moments of doubt and struggle I believe it is the Holy Spirit's will to “use us as pipe for His water.” One of my favorite song quotes is from Dave Matthews, “Funny the way it is, right or wrong, somebody's broken heart becomes your favorite song.”

Whatever your “pipe” is made of, let the water flow...and be willing to share!

Nicholas Carroll, Director of Music

DRAFT SOCIAL STATEMENT ON WOMEN AND JUSTICE

Trinity will participate in a time of examination and response to the newest ELCA Social Statement Draft. Our first gathering for discussion will be on Wednesday, August 22 at 6:00 p.m. at Italian Oven, and will proceed much like our Table Talks. Copies of the Social Statement can be downloaded from the ELCA.org website, or you may call Trinity's Office to get a copy. A second meeting is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, August 29 at 6:00 p.m. in the Community Room at the Lutheran Commons (Deb Stewart hosting). You will need to read portions of the Social Statement for each discussion. Conversation will occur over dinner; formal, written input is also welcome.

An ELCA Social Statement is used for teaching, policy development, and for responses to issues in society. Before approval of a Social Statement by the Church in Assembly, an extensive process of study, responses, and hearings are used so as to have input from the whole church. Trinity has been involved in the development of several of the Social Statements produced over the last 15 years. Join us!

PASTORAL EXAMPLE

(reprinted from Christian Century, August 15, 2018 issue)

Girls who have had a direct example of clergy-women in childhood grow up with higher self-esteem, better employment records and more education than girls who did not, according to research by Benjamin Knoll and Cammie Jo Bolin. When girls have had female clergy at least some of the time growing up, their later reported levels of self-esteem are consistently as high as men's, even though generally women report lower levels of self-esteem. In the survey, a gender gap in psychological and economic empowerment is present only among those whose religious congregational leaders growing up were exclusively men.

FOR TRINITY'S CHILDREN!

Blessing of the Backpacks - August 26th, 2018

To acknowledge and celebrate the beginning of the school year, we plan to offer a Blessing of the Backpacks at the August 26th church services at 7:30 and 10:00 a.m. We believe that ALL children are learners, therefore we see a true benefit to inviting all the youth (regardless of age) to this special blessing. We envision all children taking and/or wearing their backpacks to the front of the church where Pastor Linda will provide them with an encouraging back-to-school talk and bless them/pray over them and their backpacks. The children will be wished well by the Pastor and congregation as they prepare to embark on new learning opportunities and grade levels. Please let us know if your children/grandchildren will be joining us for this special event by calling Trinity's Office (445-5446)

Youth Sunday School Begins September 9th!

God's work. This year's Sunday School theme has emerged as "God's Work. Our Hands," which we hope will evolve into a yearlong thematic unit focused on serving others and acting as the hands of Christ. Children generally enjoy participation in programs in which they partake in ownership and see a real outcome or result from their hard work. It is our aspiration that we can provide such genuine and active learning in our youth classes and that it will serve as a reminder to 'do unto others.' We look forward to a year filled with active learning and service as Trinity's youth learn about Jesus and celebrate His good works. Let's meet each week at 8:45 a.m. in the Chapel to begin!

Youth Kick-off Breakfast - September 9, 2018

Many of our youth participants attend different school districts or don't share a common proximity with one another. Therefore, we must work to build relationships and friendships among the youth who attend Sunday School. Strong relationships among the kids will only solidify the strength, interest, and participation in our programming and activities.

In an attempt to build and strengthen these relationships, we plan to kick-off Youth Sunday School with a celebratory breakfast. The breakfast will be served in the Youth Sunday School classrooms and will occur during the traditional time of Sunday School. We can't wait to celebrate and kick-off a fun and exciting Sunday School year with you! We begin in the Chapel at 8:45.

Upcoming Weeks for Children's Sunday School:

- Sept. 16 Nature/Church Scavenger Hunt
- Sept. 23 Introduction to and beginning of the Ten Commandments

UPDATE...UPDATE...

CHURCH CAMP FOR SOMERSET COUNTY FOSTER CARE YOUTH: Camp Sequanota invited youth from the Somerset County Foster Care to attend summer camp this year at a cost of $500 per youth. (Many of these youth have never had an opportunity to attend a church camp.)

Trinity's members have donated $1,285.00 for this special Foster Care camp experience!! Thank you!!

CHILD CARE NEWS

Our 'Disney Summer' is coming to an end. The children had a great time exploring different themes that we get from the Disney movies that they love. From visiting the forest, to learning about how to care for pets, and having fun on the beach, the kids enjoyed it all.

We are finishing off our summer with a celebration of our children. On Thursday, August 23 at 4:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall, all of the children will perform for their families. Feel free to come and watch our spectacular children show off their talents.

I want to thank everyone who ordered Kettle Korn from us. We had a successful fundraiser, having over $650 in profit. With the school year right around the corner, we are preparing our children to transition into their new classrooms.

We are always looking for volunteers who would want to help us in our rooms. Come read a book, lead a craft, or help the teachers. If you are interested, please come and see me for more details on the requirements needed.

Director of
Trinity Lutheran Child Care and Learning Center

CONFIRMATION IS A-MAZING

LAUREL HIGHLANDS CONFERENCE CONFIRMATION EVENTS are *coming soon!

One result of the conversations among our Laurel Highlands Conference congregations was the desire to work together to provide an excellent supplemental Confirmation program for every congregation – no matter the size of their congregation or Confirmation classes. Our goal is to create Somerset-wide opportunities for Confirmation students (or Confirmation-age students) to gather for learning, service, and fun activities. Deb Stewart and Pastor Linda are part of the planning team.

The Calendar of Events (about every 6 weeks or so) will include fun and active learning modules, worship, and a meal. Community building and exploring our Identity in Christ will be the focus in our early gatherings. A letter will be going out to Trinity youth and families with a full calendar soon.

The First Gathering will be on Sunday, September 30 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The Faranda Farm – Corn Maze, campfire, hot dogs, games, hay rides, and more! Cost is $8.00 per person.

Youth who are in Grades 6 through 9 and their families are invited to join us for First Introductions and A-mazing Fun!

Trinity's current Confirmation Class will be finishing up their two-year program in September and October. Confirmation Sunday is also Reformation Sunday – October 28. These Confirmation students, as well as those who are not yet enrolled in a Confirmation class, are welcome to come to this Fall Kick-Off Event. These Conference events will supplement the classes provided in individual congregations. Come and Check it out!!

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in a Lutheran Congregation is both a privilege and a responsibility.

It is a PRIVILEGE because, by Baptism, God has given us a family in which to Grow in Faith, Worship God, and Serve others.

It is a RESPONSIBILITY because God has given us gifts of time, talent, and treasure to steward. Stewardship is sharing those gifts to help build up the body of Christ and participate in God's mission in the world.

We are a community formed to hear the Gospel, to receive God's love in Word and Sacrament, to gather with God's people regularly for worship, service and fellowship – it is a meaningful relationship.

We have noticed that some in our number, have been absent for some time. Perhaps they have moved out of the area or have become active in another congregation. Perhaps they have had some conflict or tension... or simply have fallen out of the habit of attending.

Whatever the reason, we would like to do something about it!

Each and every member is important to the whole in the Body of Christ. When a child is baptized and when new members are received, we say, "We welcome you... we promise to support you in faith... we promise to work with you"...etc. These words we speak, these promises we make ARE important.

If YOU know someone who is no longer attending Trinity – for whatever reason – please, ask them to return with you! If they have found a new church home – please ask them to make that known to Trinity’s Office (or YOU can be empowered to do so.) If they have something to talk about, ask if the Pastor or a Council member can call on them, to talk – and then convey that to us!

Letters will go out later this year asking folks who have become inactive, to identify how they would like to be related (or not) to the congregation in the future. Our constitution calls for the Council to conduct an annual audit of the rolls of the congregation – this is an important exercise!

Membership can take several different forms – and proper assignment is important for a host of reasons. Each form has specific privileges and responsibilities. The five forms of membership are:

- a. Baptized
- b. Confirmed
- c. Voting
- d. Associate
- e. Seasonal

Persons may elect to move from one form of membership to another, based on their particular circumstances and meeting the criteria. Persons may also be removed from the roll of members due to inactivity, in accordance with the provisions of Trinity’s Congregational Constitution and Bylaws.

The Council has appointed Deb Stewart, Melanie Miller, and Pastor Linda to examine our rolls and to come back to the Council with recommendations. This notice is a first step. If you know of someone this information may apply to – someone who has become inactive, for whatever reason – invite them back into fellowship! Share this information with them and ask them to take the first step.

LUTHERAN FALL FESTIVAL

This afternoon of fellowship and worship will be held Saturday, September 22 at Legion Park in Hollidaysburg from 3:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Starting at 3:00 p.m., we will have booths set up by congregations, vendors, and partners. These will include food stations, games, information, arts and crafts, and other activities. Throughout the afternoon we will welcome musical entertainment from members of our Synod and our Synod congregations.

If you are interested in your congregation having a booth or display at the festival, please be in contact with Pastor Drew McCaffery at blcpastor@atlanticbbn.net.

Starting at 5:00 p.m., we will have a community meal. We are planning to have pulled pork and pulled chicken provided by Holland Bros of Duncansville. Tickets for the meal are $10.00 and are available through our Synod office (814) 942-1042 or office@alleghenysynod.com.

At 6:30 p.m., we will have worship in the Pavilion at the Park. Part of the service will be a candlelight service. We are moving to the pavilions this year because we will have lights in case the evening gets dark before we are finished. Also, we will be under cover in case of inclement weather.

We would like to invite congregations to bring congregational banners to decorate our worship space. If you would be able to bring a banner with you, please contact Pastor Paula or Bishop Rhyne at the Synod office (814) 942-1042.

WHAT ARE YOU MISSING OUT ON AT M&M

Recently in our Marys and Marthas (M&M) Bible Study, we were discussing an article entitled “Snap Judgment.” The article was written by Bev Stratton, a couple’s therapist and professor emerita of religion at Augsburg University, Minneapolis. “Where judging goes wrong, and how we make it right.” is her lead-in statement. Check out her article in the April “Gather” magazine.

“That’s stupid” I believe we have all said that at some time or another. In other words, we all make quick decisions and then realize how this automatic and painful judging can be to others. Stratton tells us that there is a reason for this. Our quick emotions are part of a survival system in our brain and cause us to make automatic, non-thinking, split second judgments.

Stratton goes on to say that we are set up with a “negativity bias” in our everyday thinking. I certainly agree with this, as I feel when talking with many people I hear them being very negative. She says this is because we do not feel safe, and need to learn to “think slow” and we will be more positive in our thinking and judgments.

We read in the Sermon on the Mount that Jesus tells us “not to judge the speck in our neighbor’s eye when there is a log in our own” (Matthew 7:1-5). Paul reminds us that when we judge others we are condemning ourselves for we do the same things (Romans 2:1). Martin Luther in the Small Catechism explains in the eighth commandment – you should not bear false witness against your neighbor. He provides us with more helpful guidance: “We are to fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbors, betray or slander them, or destroy their reputations. Instead we are to come to their defense, speak well of them, and interpret everything that they do in the best possible light.”

Stratton, goes on to give us excellent reading material in all that helps us to be thinking slow. I found this excellent poem that is helpful in doing just that.
